

Biodata

MAJORIE KOH

Majorie is presently working as a Counsellor with a student counselling centre. She is a registered counsellor with the Singapore Association for Counselling. She has a Bachelor of Arts from the National University of Singapore, a Postgraduate Diploma in Education from the National Institute of Education, and a Master of Social Science (Counselling) from Edith Cowen University. Before becoming a counsellor, Majorie has worked as a teacher and social worker.

Majorie has a deep desire to empower people through teaching and counselling, and equipping them with the necessary tools to aid them in their healing process. She also has a deep passion to work with people in counselling so that they can fully develop express their God-given potential.

Majorie accepted the Lord at the age of 17 and currently attends New Creation Church.

When to say YES
and When to say NO

To take

CONTROL of your life

Boundaries Support Group for Singles

